Complaint: Item Not as Described, Order #1029384756

Dear GAFINA.ID,

I am writing about my order #1029384756, placed on 8 August 2026 for Karla Top, at a price of Rp79,500.The product page described the item as "premium semi-wool women's blouse, brown color, size L with a chest width of 100 cm". However, the item I received is "a thinner fabric with a different shade and a smaller size". I have attached photos as evidence.

As the item does not match its description, I would like to request a return and full refund. I would appreciate your reply within [3] working days.

Thank you for your attention.

Sincerely,

Septia Nenengsih

2. Examples Based on My Experience

   I recently bought a Karla Top (a premium semi-wool women's blouse, brown, size L / chest 100 cm) from GAFINA.ID on Shopee. The original price was Rp159,000, discounted to Rp79,500. After a Shopee voucher, a store voucher, a shipping discount, and a service fee, the total was Rp66,891. The order was delivered by SPX Standard on 8 August 2026. Here are examples of professional writing I can use in the process:

1. Asking the seller before purchase

   "Good afternoon. I am interested in the Karla Top in Brown, size L (chest 100 cm). Is this size currently in stock? Could you also tell me how thick the fabric is and whether the color is the same as in the photo? Thank you."

2. Asking about a store voucher

   "Hello, I would like to ask about the store voucher. The price changed from Rp159,000 to Rp79,500, and a store voucher was applied at checkout. Could you confirm the conditions of this voucher so I can use it correctly next time? Thank you."

3. Asking about shipping time

   "Hello, may I ask when my order will be shipped? I chose SPX Standard and would like to receive it as soon as possible. Thank you for your help."

4. Writing a product review

   "The blouse arrived on 8 August 2026 in good condition. The brown color and size L match the description, and the fabric looks premium. The seller was responsive. I recommend this shop."
